6. What is covered by the insurance

Exhibition goods to be used at the exhibition.

During exhibition:

The insurance covers damage to or loss of exhibition goods caused by sudden and unforeseen events

During transit:

The insurance covers damage to or loss of exhibition goods as well as costs arising from general average.

During transport and exhibition:

This insurance covers damage to or loss of goods that are directly caused by people involved in

- strikes, lockouts or other labour conflicts,
- protest actions, riots or similar disturbances,
- acts of terrorism or similar acts, dictated by political or religious motives.

This cover can be terminated by either party with 48 hours notice.

This insurance does not cover damage, loss or expenses caused by lack of labour due to strikes, lockouts or other labour market disturbances, riots, civil commotions or similar disturbances.

Package:

Damage to packaging ment to be reused included

7. What is not covered by the insurance

The insurance does not cover damage, loss or costs resulting from

- non-compliance with the technical regulations laid down by the Swedish Exhibition & Congress Centre,
- improper packaging and stowage of exhibition goods when considering the means of transport used,
- pollution, wear and tear, discolouration, chafing, scratching, etc,
- normal operation and use of the goods,
- inadequate protection against normal weather conditions,
- the inherent vice or nature of the exhibition goods,

- variations in temperature due to natural climate, time,
- loss of time, interest, loss owing to fluctuations in the market, loss of profit, loss of market or other indirect loss,
- removal and destruction of damaged goods,
- war, war-like events, civil war, revolution, civil commotion or riot or
- nuclear reaction.

8. Safety regulations

- Showcases may not be left unattended during exhibition opening hours,
- The Insured or the Insured's employees must take proper precautions and care when handling exhibition goods,
- Theft-prone goods must, where possible, be kept in a locked room,
- After closing time and after closure of the exhibition, theft-prone and expensive goods must be locked away or secured.

If reasonable precautions have not been taken, cover will be reduced. In some cases, cover may cease altogether.

9. Insurable value

The insurable value must equal the market value of property displayed at the time of the damage.

10. Duties of the insured in the event of damage

Loss prevention

The policyholder shall take steps to the best of their ability to

- prevent or
- reduce the loss and
- as soon as possible take charge of and protect damaged and undamaged property

Indemnity will be provided for reasonable costs that the insured has had for fulfilling his salvage obligation, but only up to the maximum sum insured.

If anyone who is not a party to the insurance contract is liable for damages, the insured shall also take steps to preserve any right that If may have against this party.

In case of damage

Any damage that may give rise to claims must be reported as soon as possible. In the event of malicious damage, theft, burglary, assault or any other offence, the Insured must report the incident to the police as soon as possible.

Claims

Claims must be notified to the Insurer as soon as possible after the occurrence of the damage and not later than six months after the Insured becomes aware of such damage.

The Insured must specify its claim and, on request, submit details of the insured property – both damaged and undamaged property – stating the value of each item before and after the damage. The Insured must also substantiate its claim at the request of the Insurer by providing the information at hand and by submitting receipts, proof and other documentation necessary to assess the Insurer's liability and the amount of cover.

No cover is provided for costs resulting from the preparation of claims.

11. Loss assessment provisions

In the event of damage to property, the loss is calculated as the difference between the market value of the property immediately before and after the damage.

12. Claims settlement provisions

The Insured is under an obligation to provide proof of the value of the damaged or lost property. If it is assessed that the damaged property can be repaired, the Insured must await directions from If before the repair is undertaken. However, cover for damaged property can never exceed the value of the property immediately prior to the occurrence of the damage.

The Insurer has the right to examine the damaged property at all times.

13. General conditions

The provisions set out in the General Swedish Marine Insurance Plan of 2006 also apply to this insurance.
